INVESTIGATION: HOMICIDE STABBING STREET

SUBJECT: INTERVIEW OF JOE CASTILLO (BARTENDER)

0900 hrs

1. On this date and at the above time, the undersigned interviewed Mr. Joe Castillo of 396 5 Ave. Brooklyn N.Y. Mr. Castillo is the bartender at the Little Liva Inn address: 1189 Gates Ave. Brooklyn N.Y.

2. Mr. Castillo states that he knew the deceased and her brothers George and Robert McNeill for approximately 2 years. "She comes in about once a month. She is a very sociable, friendly girl. When she comes in she generally buys a few rounds of drinks for the other customers. She comes in to have a good time and usually converses with most of the customers." He states that the racial make-up of the bar is mostly black and even though she is one of the few white people that frequent the bar, she felt safe because she grew up in the neighborhood and knows most of the people.

3. Mr. Castilla stated that around 2 AM on the morning of Nov. 26, 1987, Maureen Fernandes (AKA NINA) came into the bar with a male, white/hispanic, approx 28 yrs old, 5'8" tall, 170 lbs, rather short styled dark hair, clean shaven, with an athletic build. The bartender did not recognize the male so he took Mrs. Fernandes off to the side and asked if she was O.K. She stated that she was all-right and that he was a friend. They both sat at the bar and had a few drinks. Mr. Castilla stated that Mrs. Fernandes looked like she might have been drinking before she came into the bar, but did not appear intoxicated. He also stated that the male did not appear to be drunk. The two were described as being acting "close" with each other with the male putting his arm around her on different occasions. On one occasion a male black entered the bar and attempted to sell a stolen watch. He approached a few customers before the bartender (Mr. Castillo) told him not to bring in any more stolen items. Mrs. Fernandes told the male/black that if he needed money she would give him $5, but she did not want the watch. The male took the $5 and put the watch back in his pocket. He then bought a drink with the money. Mrs. Fernandes then went to the ladies room. As Mrs. Fernandes went to the ladies room, the male/black took a twenty dollar bill belonging to her from off the bar and walked out. The bartender saw this and told her male companion who ran outside, had a conversation with the male/black, and returned inside together. The male black returns the twenty dollar bill, apologizes, and said that he mis-understood her. Mrs. Fernandes then exits the ladies room, sees what's going on and said that she gave him the money. The male black then remains at the bar, although not with her. At approximately 3:30 A.M. Mrs. Fernandes and her companion got up to leave. As they were walking out, Mrs. Fernandes turned to Mr. Castillo and asked if she had left him a tip. He replied that she had and wished them a good night. Both Mrs. Fernandes and her male companion then exited the bar.

DETAILS:

4. Due to the above, the undersigned requests that this case remain active.
